READING THE CARDS

Robert, thank you for allowing me to support you on your journey in creating the life you want!

My approach to reading Tarot may not be considered “traditional”, so please read the following carefully:

I do not tell you your future.

I believe in freewill, and your ability to shape your own destiny.
The Tarot offers powerful guidance, but nothing is ever set in stone.

You are the creator in your life.

Intuition is in the forefront of all of my readings while also integrating the more traditional Tarot card meanings. On some cases, the messages in the reading may feel uncomfortable to hear, however, I will always be honest with what I see in the cards, while also being sensitive & respectful to your feelings. And remember, nothing is set in stone - you can always shape your future.

Before beginning all readings, I connect with my higher self, guides & angels, requesting that I am supported in intuitively delivering the message that is most important for your personal growth, and in the service of the greater good of humanity.

IMPORTANT: Before you explore your reading...

Please create a quiet, sacred space for yourself where you won't be disturbed.
Doing this will support you in experiencing a deeper connection to the information in the reading, and open up the possibility for you to come to even more powerful insights.

Robert, the following pages contain your reading based on the question you submitted:

“I am going on a overseas trip in November and would be grateful for any insight as to how it will go.”

I chose ‘The Wild Unknown Deck’ and created a custom spread to explore the different aspects of your question.

Inge ♥

One More Thing...

At the end of the reading I pulled an Oracle card for you to sit with, and use
YOUR intuition to connect with the meaning of the card for yourself. Enjoy!

(As always, all communications disclosed during a reading are respected & completely confidential.)

READING PREPARATION

How I prepared for your reading...

I created a sacred space for your reading, cleared the energy of the deck using crystals that felt aligned with your question, meditated, centered myself and called in my higher guides for support & clarity.

The crystals I used below are:

- > Above the Tarot Deck is a Pyrite Cluster & piece of Malachite <
- > A Shungite Pyramid is on top of the Deck <
- > A Selenite Wand is on Each Side of the Deck <
- > Below the Deck is a 24K gold Seed of Life Symbol with a Labradorite stone in the middle <

READING & INTERPRETATIONS

#1: What insight is available around how my overseas trip will go?

THE STAR (Major Arcana)

The Star is a Major Arcana card (which points to a bigger life lesson or reoccurring theme throughout your life). They are important cards to pay attention to.

What a beautiful card to begin your reading with! The Star is bright, hopeful, and literally radiates beautiful, positive energy. It is truly a wonderful sign that your upcoming overseas trip is very important to your overall life's journey.

This card shows me that you have gone through some challenging situations, and have learned some big lessons as a result. You are ready to evolve and illuminate new aspects of yourself. This trip overseas is likely to bring some big insights around the dreams you hold for your life, and open up new ways of turning them into reality. Trust your brilliant inner wisdom, and let it guide you as you explore the new experiences that await you on this journey. Magic is in the air!

Being a Major Arcana card, it's important to look at other times in your life that you have gone through significant transformation. What did you learn from those experiences, and how can they support you now?

#2: What challenges may I encounter on this overseas trip?

SEVEN OF PENTACLES (Reversed)

When I draw a card in the reversed/upside down position I primarily see it as an indication to focus your attention inward, on yourself.

Seeing the Seven of Pentacles Reversed in connection with the question about what challenges you may encounter on this trip, shows that you may be "tested" around some different areas of growth that you've recently gone through - particularly around finances.

This card can be seen as a warning to avoid dropping back into old habits that didn't serve you. Or you may have a sense of overwhelm or confusion as you step in this new territory. Looking back at the Star card, remember, you are engaging with life in a fresh and new way - so of course there could be some internal confusion as your mind chatters about what you "used to do". Be gentle with yourself as you stay aware of these outdated patterns. Big changes take time to integrate, and no matter what challenges show up, try to focus on the brilliant messages coming from deep in your heart.

READING & INTERPRETATIONS

#3: What opportunities may I encounter on this overseas trip?

TWO OF PENTACLES

Another card from the suit of Pentacles, however this card is in the upright position. I see the Two of Pentacles suggesting that the opportunities you may encounter on this trip are likely to revolve around balance. Particularly around work, finances & relationships (family, friends, a lover).

Consistent balance and harmony is a tricky thing to master. (I don't think I've ever met someone who has!) So, the opportunity here is in exercising your flexibility and agility in how you juggle these different aspects in your life.

If you're traveling alone, use this as an opportunity to release yourself from your work responsibilities (or at least loosen your grip). Or if you're traveling with friends or family, try to be flexible if plans suddenly change. Your ability to adjust on the fly will be an opportunity to show yourself (and maybe others) the beauty in being open to going with the flow of change.

What may appear as a balancing act or struggle, could lead you to a new opportunity for growth on this trip - that isn't obvious at first.

#4: What should I consider to get the most value out of this trip?

THE SUN (Major Arcana)

The Sun is another Major Arcana card! Clearly this trip is going to bring some amazing experiences into your life. How Exciting!

This is simply a glorious card to complete your reading with. The Sun is all about positive energy, fun, vitality & lighthearted playfulness. In relation to the question about what to consider to get the most value out of this trip, I see it as a crystal clear sign to let yourself HAVE FUN!

Let your brilliant inner light shine, and your joyful, zest for life will attract the abundance you desire. It will be effortless for you, and irresistible to others.

Your challenging personal work has paid off, and this trip is an opportunity to fully experience the fruits of your labor! This valuable experience will support you when you return home... if you do... The world is your oyster, my friend!

READING & INTERPRETATIONS

Reading Overview

I created this spread to help you gain insight around how your upcoming overseas trip will go.

Overall, this reading feels like a slam dunk into the joy, abundance, and freedom you deserve. The first and last cards in your reading (The Star & The Sun) are both glorious, high energy Major Arcana cards, indicating a very positive, life changing experience is likely waiting for you on this trip. The cards also show you've gone through some deep transformation and personal growth! These lessons have likely prepared you for what's coming... Be ready to receive!

The middle cards (being both pentacles), show me this growth may have been primarily focused around finances & balancing commitments. You may face some challenges that "test" your footing while you're on this trip, but try to be gentle and kind to yourself through the experience. Go with the flow and see what opportunities show up.

You have opened your heart in a whole new way, and it's simply glorious. Enjoy every bit of joy you attract!
